

Dear Customer,

We are pleased to present our latest tin catalog.

Within these pages are years of constant innovation and relentless pursuit of quality in design and in materials.

We offer several different styles and types of tins. Our selection includes basic/everyday tins as well as seasonal tins. We also offer a vast selection of colors and styles. Many of our tins include liners, however, containers without liners may also be purchased.

We are committed to high standards of excellence and design quality. Our competitive pricing further enhances the value of our products. In pursuing innovative ideas, we hope to bring diversity to the marketplace by offering unique choices to our customers.

We hope you enjoy this edition of our tin catalog and are able to better understand our commitment to quality products.
